YORK LUNATIC ASYLUM.

HE Charity, which bears the name of the YORK LUNATIC ASYLUM, was established in the year 1777, by general subscription; and had for its first object the Cure and Relief of such Insane persons as were in low circumstances. How well it has answered the intended purpose, is sufficiently known in the extensive County in which it stands. Being an Establishment without either a fund or an annual subscription, the friends of the Patients pay a weekly sum suitable to their abilities; by which means the indigent are relieved at the expense of the affluent. In the management of the family, the strictest economy is observed; and the utmost attention is paid to decency As nothing is demanded beyond and cleanliness. what the friends of the Patients can afford to pay, the accumulation of money is not the object in view .--The unhappy sufferers consequently reap the full benefits arising from their own money. At the first opening of the Asylum, there was no distinction of Patients, and all paid eight shillings per week for their board and medicines; but after a few years it was found that this sum was not well proportioned, as under that regulation, those who were in easy circumstances paid too little, and those who were poor, and had no parish relief, paid too much. It was therefore ordered, That a few persons of better condition should be admitted on their paying a weekly sum, proportioned to their circumstances: And at the same time it was ordered, That the overflowings of their weekly payments should be applied in aid of those persons who were in narrow circumstances and paid for themselves. In this manner, the indigent Lunatic is now furnished with part of his subsistence from the stores of a fellow-sufferer, whom Providence has placed in more abundant circumstances. But as it would be unreasonable to exper he Physician to bestow a gratuitous attendance on persons in easy circumstances, (who in another place would have been his own private patients,) he is allowed to take from the friends of such patients the reasonable emoluments of his profession.

At this present time, the Asylum contains 112 Patients. These the Governors have formed into three Divisions. The first Division, never to exceed 25, consists of such Patients as are of better condition, and who pay a considerable weekly sum for their board and medicines, the surplus of which (about one hundred pounds per annum) is employed in lessening the payments of those who are in low circumstances, and have no parish relief. Some persons have said that these patients are admitted to the exclusion of the insane poor; but that is an unjust and injurious supposition, as no one poor person has ever been refused admission for want of room; neither is it probable that such a refusal will ever take place, as at this present time there are many rooms unoccupied: And as a proof that this is a charitable Improvement, the Governors of the Lunatic Asylum at Manchester,

Liverpool, Gloucester, and other places, have adopted the measure. The second Division consists of those patients who pay eight shillings per week for their board and medicines; a sum which, from experience, is found equal to the expense incurred by Patients in general. In this Division the Governors have included the parish paupers, judging it unreasonable that the opulent Inhabitants of a Parish should share with the necessitous objects of the third Division, any part of the savings arising from the enlarged payments of the few Patients in easy circumstances. The third Division consists of Patients in very low circumstances, who pay for their board, and receive nothing from their respective parishes. These are all objects of pitiable distress. On this Division of distressed Individuals, in number 26, the Governors, as already observed, bestow the overflowings of the first Division, together with the interest of nearly 800l. given by Lady Gower, Mrs. Bourchier, Mrs. Bouverie, and others, " for the relief of the most necessitous objects, at the discretion of the Governors." Without those aids, the poor objects of this Division reald not subsist in the Asylum, it being well known had no part of the public money has ever been employed in the maintenance of the Patients. On the contrary, the Patients, by weekly payments proportioned to their abilities, have hitherto defrayed all the expenses of the Household, together with the Salary of the Apothecary, and the Wages of the Servants, amounting in the last year nearly to the sum of 1800l. The present estate of the Asylum does not exceed 3600l. capital Stock, in the Three per Cents. the Interest of which is employed in the repairs of the fabric, and in the purchase of furniture, which, in an Establishment of this kind, is attended with a considerable annual expence. This fund, however, is daily increasing by Donations and Legacies. This year, sixteen new Bed Rooms have been added by an order of the General Court, and in consideration of the increased number of Patients, several Day Rooms have been constructed, by which improvement the House is rendered perfectly sweet and commodious. The Governors flatter themselves that the expense of this necessary improvement (about 1500l.) will soon be repaid by the liberality of the public. An Institution, so charitably and wisely constructed, is justly entitled to the approbation of mankind, and the Governors have a peculiar pleasure in acknowledging that approbation, made still more valuable, by the liberality of the humane and charitable, whose respectable names are recorded on the walls of the Committee-room, and here transcribed.— To conclude, the Public, with unbounded generosity, raised a large Sum for the purpose of erecting and furnishing a commodious Building for the reception of one hundred unhappy objects; and after four Years the whole was completed, under the direction of a Committee, to whose care and attention the Public are indebted for the present useful and benevolent Charity.

RESOLUTIONS and ORDERS.

RESOLVED, That this Charity shall be named the YORK LUNATIC ASYLUM, and be considered as a general Establishment for the reception of all perfons labouring under an unfound mind, whether curable or not.

Ordered, That all the patients in the house, and such as may hereafter be received, shall be classed according to their respective circumstances

CLASS 1. Eight shillings per week. CLASS 5. Twelve shillings per week.

__ 2. Nine shillings.

— 3. Ten shillings.
— 4. Eleven shillings.

6. Thirteen shillings.
7. Fourteen shillings.
5 Fifteen shillings & upwards.

N. B. The above payments discharge lodging, board, coal, and candle, tea, washing, and medicines; but those whose payments exceed eight shillings per week, pay for their own washing.

Ordered, That a separate table be kept for such patients as are rated above eight shillings per week, with the privilege of being admitted without certificates.

Resolved, That women with child, labouring under an unsound mind, shall be received, upon security being given that the child shall not become burthensome to the parish in which the Asylum stands.

RESOLUTIONS and ORDERS.

be received into the house without previous notice, if presented before sun-set: But in all other cases, it is expected that notice be sent to the Apothecary at the Asylum a few days before the arrival of the patient, that every thing may be properly prepared for his or her reception.

Resolved, That Lunatics, coming recommended as parish poor, shall be placed in the first class, except upon extraordinary occasions; it being the intention of this institution to give the greatest relief to such persons as are in low and distressed circumstances, and who are not supported by their respective parishes.

Resolved, That it would be convenient to the Public, as well as advantageous to the Asylum, if a few patients in easy circumstances were admitted.

Ordered, That patients of the above description shall in future be admitted, on their paying a suitable pension to the Asylum; but it is understood that the attending Physician shall receive from the friends of such patients, the reasonable emoluments of his profession.

ORDERED, That the Physician shall attend, gratis, the parish poor, and all patients whose weekly payments do not exceed eight shillings.

ORDERED, That the savings arising from the enlarged payments of the patients of better condition, shall be bestowed upon those patients who are in very low circumstances, and pay for their own board; but parishes shall not be entitled to any part of these savings.

Resolved, That a donation of twenty pounds, or upwards, (if given without conditions) shall constitute a Governor, with the privilege of recommending as many patients as he may think proper.

ORDERED, That the following be the forms of admission for all patients whose payments do not exceed eight shillings per week.
